

JULIAN PACE CIRCUS MAXIMUS

9.9 - 10.18.2026

Dan Yoshii is pleased to present Circus Maximus, Los Angeles-based artist Julian Pace's first exhibition with the gallery. Bringing together paintings of various scales and some of the smallest works on paper the artist has ever created, Circus Maximus is an extension of Pace's practice revolving around iconography, pop culture, and sports.

As the title of the exhibition suggests, Pace's stylized approach to pop culture icons echoes the absurdity of celebrity worship in an almost iconoclast manner, portraying athletes and objects with a cult following in exaggerated ways. He leans into the absurdity of the cultural phenomena of fanaticism and mass media culture that can often extend to levels of apotheosis by making the figures fully fill the confines of the canvas and paper, enlarging their shoulders, torso, and hands beyond imagination.

Even when depicting objects, Pace focuses on loud and dynamic contemporary motifs instead of everyday or traditional objects that many artists look to. From monster trucks to race cars, and Kermit the Frog to a Labubu, he places a spotlight on symbols of the mainstream, commercial, and mass culture.
